In the Coming Week

HOSPITAL REACHES CENTURY MARK

Supervisor Greg Cox will honor the 100th anniversary of Paradise Valley Hospital at a community picnic celebration of their commitment to providing health care services to the surrounding, diverse communities in San Diego.

Sunday, September 26 at 1:00 pm at Paradise Valley Hospital, 2400 East Fourth Street, National City

CHECK BOOSTS DOWNTOWN QUALITY OF LIFE

Supervisor Cox will make a presentation of a check for $15,000 to the Downtown San Diego Partnership to support the Downtown San Diego Community Court, a non-traditional innovative approach to dealing with low-level misdemeanor quality of life crimes, such as petty theft, public urination, drinking in public and in some cases, graffiti. The program provides offenders with an opportunity to "pay" their debt back into the community through community work service.

Tuesday, September 28 at 7:15 am at the Downtown Partnership Board of Directors Meeting, Omni San Diego Hotel, 675 L Street, Downtown San Diego

ENVIRONMENT AND ACTION IN THE OTAY WATERSHED

Supervisor Cox will participate in a breakfast dialog, organized by Citizens Coordinate for Century 3, about the Otay Valley Regional Park, the Otay River watershed and development in Otay Ranch.

Thursday, September 30 at 7:30 am in the Harborside Room of the Holiday Inn on the Bay, 1355 Harbor Drive, San Diego

CABRILLO FESTIVITIES

Supervisor Greg Cox will commemorate the 41st annual Cabrillo Festival at a wreath laying ceremony honoring Juan Rodríguez Cabrillo's voyage of exploration and his arrival in San Diego in 1542.

Friday, October 1 at 6:00 pm at the Cabrillo National Monument, 1800 Cabrillo Memorial Drive, Point Loma
